tate or to the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co and this knowledge will not be available until the executors and the firm check up all the holdings in Mr.

Morgan's name. There is a general belief that the There is a general belief that the Metropolitan Museum of Art will be the home of the great Morgan collection, possibly not as a gift for the present, but as a loan with conditions that would carry out Mr. Morgan's wish to make them available for the American people. "None of the Museum Board would discuss the matter to-day, but if the city assures adequate housing for the collecasegres adequate housing for the collec-tions, it is likely the Metropolitan will get most of the treasures. The Board of Estimate now has before it a propoeition to construct a $150,000 wing in MAY ESTABLISH A NEW ART

Should this not be done there is no count in the minds of those connected with the Art Museum on whom Mr. Morgan relied for advice at times that a great museum, something combining the ideas of the Corcoran Museum in Washington and that of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner in Boston, will be established. The Corcoran Museum idea would per-The Corcoran Museum idea would perpetuate the Morgan name and keep the collection intact. The Gardner Museum, which Mr. Morgan visited often. appealed to him very much because, as he has been quoted as once saying, it is a place "where one does not instinctiveig reach for a catalogue." Mrs. Gardner thiving erected the building around her ellection rather than having fitted the collection into a building until the whole as a bit of old Venice dropped down a "the Fens."

There is ample room on the Morgan reporty on Murray Hill for the ereciton of such a building, with part of the re structure, the library, completed.

Whatever disposition Mr. Morgan well established that he will be compelled to pay an inheritance tax upon it unices the state should pass a special act exempting that portion of all given the stamp of party approval.

When the Mount and t Bresent law. In Albany to-day Gov. lature recommending such a course HEAVY PRICE TO PAY FOR

BENEFITING PUBLIC. estate will pay, assuming the collection to be appraised at no more than $55,000,000, a tax to the State of $1,200,000

the minority report from the Republicans.

All the weeks of talk that are to come with have no vital effect on the result of the work will be found securities as all the minority report from the Republicans.

All the weeks of talk that are to come will have no vital effect on the result of the vote. The Democrats have approximately used to the vote the Democrats have approximately used to the vote. The Democrats have approximately used to the vote the Democrats have approximately used to the vote to the result of the vote.

s generation never heard of them, much culty in fixing a value for them. An the property difficult to value the property difficult to value and be found stocks of subsidiary railway companies, under lease and most important to great systems, which rearentee dividends upon them, bonds of, such companies and underlying beads of big systems that seldom are

The first named class of securities would include such shares as those of the New York and Harlem road, which see it controls the entrance into New fork City of the New York Central he last provious sale. Usually these sales are private, so that the public has make means of learning the market

It is understood that there are large blocks of insurance company stocks in the estate. These are very valuable and, outside of the Equitable stock, vary from time to time greatly in who, when almost everybody thought the company was going to smash, ac-cessulated a large sum by buying claims against it at a few cents on the sellar and buying its shares for a free-

titanic claims AUST BE SETTLED

at the end of the voyage, or abou 606, comprising lifeboats, pending light and passage money paid. to limit the liability of the British where of the Titanic. Under Lord Campbell's act, which gov dilish steamship owners for losses due chipwreoks, the Titanic owners would also for $1,000,000 in damages, apprilioned according to the tonnage of the wrested vessel. The American station died the limit of the shopowner's ability for damage in shipwreck at the size of the salvage.

Under Judge Holt's decision all the persons who have died suits in the persons who have select the fees to be a suit of the selection of the s

Debate Will Begin Wednesday and Last About Three Weeks.

WON'T AFFECT VOTE.

Real Fight of Protected Interests to Be Made in Closely Divided Senate.

By Samuel M. Williams (Staff Correspondent of The Evening World).

WASHINGTON, April 21 .- The new tariff bill, designed to overthrow the high protection policy of half a century. started to-day on the second lap of its course through Congress. The proliminary draft, as prepared by Congress man Underwood and his afsociates, has been worked over for the past two weeks by the Democratic majority in

When the House met at noon today the bill as amended was reintrositing a special message to the Legis-duced by Mr. Underwood and referred to the Ways and Means Committee This committee will make a favorable report of the revised draft to-morrow and Wednesday has been fixed for the reginning of a long period of debate.

Chairman Underwood, reintroducing the bill to-day, did not make any statement of changes by the caucus. Among these were the placing on the free list on the collection. This, art enthusiasts of shoe machinery, cream separators, said yesterday, is a heavy price to compet one to pay for giving away many of the income tax exemption to exvings millions for the benefit of the public. Had the art bequest been made in trust with instructions to his son to carry out his wish—that it be devoted to the uplift and entertainment of the report to the House to-morrow with.

estate will be found securities so gilt bill is a party measure: it could be edded that brokers in Wall street for passed to-morrow so far as the required a generation never heard of them, much number of votes is concerned. But them quoted, hence the diffi-fixing a value for them. An demand that a large number of orateri-Minis the State Comptroller's office eal statesmen be given opportunity to air their the State will collect about their views and spinions. While some Managan estate, which of the speeches by leaders will be illuminating in thought, sound in reasoning and national in scope, most of them will be exclusively for home consumption. That is, Congressmen from every section of the country will pour out un-

EXPECT VOTE TO BE REACHED ABOUT MAY 15.

Leader Underwood states that there printed in the records. This practice of is no question about the vote. A few leave to print is used freely for publi-cation of home industries, will vote Senators are babitual offenders. Leader Underwood states that there members have been released from the and attack the opposition. party pledge of support adopted in caucus, because of the demands of their exchanges by prohibiting them using not quite satisfied with their deportment the steward appealed to the pass under consorship and supervision purser. The purser had no record of purser and it was finally found of Louisians, on account of sugar; Ash-brook, White and Francis, of Ohio, on account of wool; Bremner and Kinkead, of New Jersey, cattle; Donovan and Kennedy, Connecticut, hats; Burke, Wisconsin, tarm products; Fowler, Ili-

While the result in the House is a forgone conclusion, there is considerable doubt as to the bill's fate in the Senate. There the Democrats have only six ma jority and some of these are disaffected. There will be protracted debate in the upper house and a tremendous lot of manipulation. How long this will last is beyond conjecture. Protected interammunition on the House, where the fight is hopeless. They will keep up a sharp skirmish fire all the time and watch for openings, but the big battle will be before the Senate.

ADVANTAGE OF CONSUMER MAIN POINT, SAYS WILSON.

Primary Tariff Consideration Not Tactical Advantages for Future Reciprocity Treaties.

WASHINGTON, April 31.—President Wilson told callers to-day he believed the low rates of the tariff bill justified, even though not permitting of many further cuts for reciprocity agreements. e American courts have no jurisdic. The President told his visitors he to limit the liability of the British thought the primary consideration was the advantage of the consumer and not necessarily the retention of tactical adreciprocity treaties.

NEW CUNARDER AQUITANIA LAUNCHED AT GLASGOW

argest Steamship Ever Built in Great Britain Will Carry Life

Boats for 4,250 Persons. GLASGOW, Scotland, April 21 .- The is were received many of deliars for services rento-day. The new vessel is double tary of the corporation, was elected a director to succeed the late J. P. Morme thing of estimated.

The new vessel is double tary of the corporation, was elected a director to succeed the late J. P. Morman. The following directors were recomplement of passengers and greek.

Henry Phips, Aifred Clifford, R. C.
Converse, James A. Farrell and J. P.
Morgan.

Wife of Actor, Who Was Crushed To Death Under Upset Auto

STOCK EXCHANGE BILL IS HALTED IN THE SENATE

Ashurst Meets Opposition from Bacon and Penrose in Presenting Reform Measure.

Special from a Staff Correspondent of The WASHINGTON, April 21.-Senator New York Stock Exchange in the Senate this afternoon and was almost inmembers. He had prepared a lengthy bill, which he introduced in the custain remarks and published articles

His bill seeks to check gambling on had their appetites with them, sechanges by prohibiting them using of the Postmaster-General, who will

MANN TELLS DEMOCRATS

Republican House Leader in Caustic! Criticism Brings In Jefferson, Bryan and Clark.

WASHINGTON, April 21.-Discussing Democrate past and present, Republican Leader Mann set off some political freworks to-day on the floor of the House. Thomas Jefferson, William R. Bryan were referred to by Mr. Mann n the course of a caustic criticism of the House Democrate.

Representative Wills of Ohio wanted printed a recent letter of William R. Hearst discussing President Wilson's visit to the House and a letter of Thomas Jefferson on the same subject.

Representative Fittgerald objected.
"You Democrats," said Mr. Mann,
"are not afraid of Thomas Jefferson be a real reconciliation. It will be a dead.

Clark-Bryan reconciliation."

A roar of applicase came from the fourteen days ago.

Speaker Clark pounded with his gavel.

Mr. Mann, "sympathizes with the Speaker in the recent struggle, and we are not afraid to say so, because we are not seeking the influence of the Secretary of State in the selection of the Manhattan side. Joseph Levy of

BLOOMIN' STOWAWAYS ON 'UNGER STRIKE, BUT H'IT DIDN'T LAST LONG

Precious Pair From H'Old H'England H'on New York H'Are 'Eld H'Up 'Ere.

The steamer New York, of the Amerithey're not going to arrive, because they're jolly well tied up in the atronghold of Eilis Island. And it's a bleeding to their own accounts.

asked unanimous consent to have cer- urday. Sunday evening there appeared Warner was placed in the car of the for dinner two English gentlemen, They were new to the steward and he when stock of this kind against the measure. So will all the But when Mr. Ashurst naked leave asked them where they came from she was suffering from a compound fraction to the studies of asked them where they came from. the price at which it is sold and May 15 is now set as the approximate sylvanis. The Arizons Senator gave England and wanted to know how dare ate immediately. Before the preparadate for the exhaustion of oratory and notice that he would take the floor at he question them. So they had dinner taking the vote. Thirteen Democratic the first opportunity this afternoon and lots of it. They went down the bill of fare and went up again. They purser. The purser had no record of the gentlemen and it was finally found prescribe methods of keeping and records. He would absolutely twenty-three years old, and prohibit wash sales, margin sales and Shakespeare Dennison, twenty-four prohibit wash sales, margin sales and Shakespeare Dennison, twenty-four prohibit of speculative accounts even years old, they were, and both were always who had prepared a concert singers who had prepared a big surprise for New York, intending to jump into the limelight, all unan-nounced. To their great distress they THEY'RE AFRAID OF HEARST. were put into the laserette and fed on the poorest there was in the ship,

"lly Jove," said 'Arry.'Iggins, "H'lli not stand for it. Hi'll not heat. HI'll put them to shame, like Mrs. Pankhurst. H'I will, believe me!"

"And HI'll stay with you, H'I will, by Jove," said his companion. We'll starve them hinto reason, we will."

And by Jove, they did for two days. The stewards brought them their food and brought it away again until they hollered for grub. They will be pas-sengers on the return trip of the steamer and will go back without get-ting a glimpse of New York.

ANOTHER AVIATOR KILLED. French Army Officer Palls and Feet With Machine.

PARIS, April 21 .- Another officer of the French Military Aviation Corps. because he's dead, but you are afraid Mout de Blamont, was killed at the of Mr. Hearst because he is alive. Some gying ground at Villacoublay just outdey we will read in the papers, I supplie of Paris to-day. His monoplane pose, of another reconciliation in which turned turtle and the aviator fell about Mr. Hearst will figure. But it will not 360 feet to the earth. He was picked up

He obtained his pilot certificate only

A man leaped from the stern of the ferryboat - Southampton shortly after U. S. Steel Election.

Directions of the U. S. Steel Corporation held their, annual meeting here to-day. Thomas Murray, assistant secre-his body was not found.

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS

AUTOISTS REFUSED AID TO RAISE CAR THAT PINNED TWO

ing Under Wreck While Many Gazed Curiously.

TWO OTHERS_INJURED. COOL AS AXE DROPS. VICTIM NEARLY

Manager Campbell in Hospital One Sells His Skull and Felled With Lead Pipe, but as Result of Fatal Crash on Merrick Road.

day afternoon, is prostrated at the home of his friend, Burton White, No. 51 West the funeral probably will be held from the Church of the Ascension, Pifth avenue and Tenth street, at noon to-mor-

Mr. Warner is, physically, badly shaken up. Maurice Campbell, the A corden of police and soldiers entirely theatrical manager, in whose car the Warners were riding, is in Hahnemann Hospital, with a broken arm and other injuries. The other occupants of the car, Sydney Brown jr., Mr. Campbell's stepson, and Fay Wheeler, an actress, escaped with bruises.

A feature of the accident that adds to Mr. Warner's mental anguish was, he said to-day, the heartlessness of the well-dressed, comfortable automobilists who arrived on the scene while the victims were pinned beneath the Campbell car, which had been overturned in a collision. Five minutes after the Campother big car, owned by Theodore M. Steinway, of the plane family, and driven by a chauffeur, more than twenty limousines and smart touring care had gathered along the road, their occuinned under the car. Mr. Warner, Mr. Brown and two bystanders had struggle in vain to lift the beavy truck. "Give me a hand, please,"

Mr. Brown. None of the automobilists moved. A couple of farmers appeared with fence rails, but they were unable to aid Mr. Warner and Mr. Brown in raising the "My God, men," eried Warner, nearly crased, "can't you see there's a yoman Not a person in the automobile stirred. Some chauffours started away with loud hanking of horns. Along came a little second hand runabot carrying two everyday citizens on their hold of Ellis Island. And it's a bleed-ir shame, it is, by the same token, for they're devilish clever fellows, accord-car up alongside the wreck, jumped ing to their own accounts.

Out, put their strength to the tack and with their sid the car was raised. Mrs. two strangers and rushed to the hospital at Habylon. She was accompan

Dr. J. F. Ames took charge of Mrs. Warner on her arrival. He found that tions for the operation were complete, however, Mrs. Warner died.

At the Babylon Hospital, in a state-ment made to Coroner Edward S. Moore, Mr. Campbell said he gave Baker plenty of room to pass, but that the other man swung his car to the middle of the road too seen and that the accident was caused in that way. He blamed Baker.

made this statement to Acting Coroner Norton:

"My name is Edward Baker and I live at No. III Albert street, Long Island City. This automobile is owned by Theodore E. Steinway of No. 109 East Fourteenth street. I am taking my wife and family to visit friends at Bay Shore. I blew my horn for this automobile to make way for me. When I thought I was safely past a heavy gust of wind brushed my limousine toward them. We felt ne shock, but I heard screams and then a crash, so I stepped. The strong wind blew my car at least a foot from its path."

Mrs. Warner was erick Hamilin, of Chicago, when erick Hamilin, of Chicago, when the five years old. Her former husband was a member of the firm of Hamilin, Misensial & Fields and was interested in the production of "The Wisard of Os." Callemin Souls be the law. Callemin Souls be the law.

"Babes in Toyland" and other musical successes. He left his widow a third successes. He left his depths of the law.

LONDON April 2.—The Committee of the London of the left his depths of the law. Mrs. Warner was the widow of Fred-erick Hamlin, of Chicago, when she mar-ried Mr. Warner. She was about thirty-

Long Awaited Decisions.

WASHINGTON, April 21 .- Attorney-General McReynolds to-day petitioned the Supreme Court to permit the Government to file a brief in the pending State rate cases because of its interests in Texas rate cases before the Commerce In Texas rate cases before in a Commerce.
Court involving some of the same points.
The Court made no consistent on receiving the petition and indicated that it might take it under advisement. Such action probably would further delay decision in the cases.
Later the Supreme Court granted the to intervene in the State rate cases and received a brief on behalf of the Govern-

WORK MONDAY WONDERS.

THREE BANDITS GUILLOTINED FOR CRIMES IN PARIS

Executed in Secret Before Dawn Breaks.

Orders Proceeds Given to Poor-Gives Autograph.

PARES, April 21 .-- In a grissling rain that made even more than usually flemal the dawn of a Parts "Sive Menday" Eleventh street. The body of Mrs. Bonnot's notorious sutomobile bandits, Warner is at Mr. White's house and to-day were guilletteed in exactly three Bonnot's notorious automobile bandits, The executions, carried out proma-turely to forestall a demonstration, occurred at 4.30 A. M. in the Boulevard Arago, outside the Prison de la Sante. the small crowd that gathered from seeing the men die. The same jumbering two brought the three doomed men from the prison to the instrument of death. Soudy, swenty-one years old, and apparently he was cheerful. "IT'S A COLD GOODBY FRIENDS,"

As his bands and feet were bou his head placed on the block he smiled at his guards and maid: "It is a cold good-by, friends.

SAID SOUDY.

Soudy's head dropped into the saw-dust-filled backet at exactly 4,55 A. M. condemned Dieudonne, came mext. Me was the context of the three and spoke not a word as his grands propered him for the block. His execution was rapid. Monier, twenty-four years old, was the last. He was sool, but very pale and plainly under great mental street. His teeth chattered as he said:

It took a few seconds longer to pre-pare Monier, and when the great kalls came down with a swish like a sibilant exhalation and dropped his head onto the sawdust it was 4.8 A. M.

the sawdust it was 4. M.

Soudy bequeated his brain to nelescope and his skull to a museum, leaving word that the proceeds derived therefrom should be expended to give tree soup to the poor. He also left behind him his autograph, which he directed should be sold at auction and the proceeds given to the cause of angrehy.

Soudy's body was claimed by his family. Nebody appeared to take pennession of the bodies of Callemin and Monier and they were turned over to a bospital.

EXECUTIONS SET DAY AHEAD

TO AVOID TROUBLE.

"Long live Anarchy!" No more shouting was heard.

None of the bandits would take the big glass of rum offered as is usual to men about to be executed. Callemin and Soudy just signified short refusal by OFF THE POLICE.

rand then we drow the first in the neighborhood when the activity of guards betrayed that the awacome guillotine was being made ready. A small around quickly gathered, but gelice and soldiers were on hand, and formed a human wall about the place of death that prevented the morbid from second that prevented the morbid from second that prevented the morbid from the said hand. They went into a salorn and Quinn gave the revolver to Foreythe.

It was predicted by many to-day that the deaths of Bouldy, Monier and Callemin Sould be the last of such excutions in France.

Tenate Flavore

A letter presenting the American case for Williams was received this morning. The English Committee met in the afternoon and completely endorsed the American interpretation of Rule V.

For

TAXICAB BANDIT TELLS ON STAND STORY OF HOLDUP

Actor Warner's Wife Lay Dy- Soudy, Callernin and Monier Leader Declares Man on Trial Took an Active Part in Robbery.

Thieves Got Nothing but Soiled Clothes.

A handsome young fellow, with a high forshead that betokened more than the ordinary intelligence, speaking Soudy, Callemin and Monier, three of in language that stamped him the colin Part III. of the Court of General Seatons this afternoon and recited, in a cold-blooded, unemotional way, the story of a notorious gang of auto

> As Joseph Taylor testified four men watched his every movement. were seeking to identify him as the slayer of Adolph Stern, who worked for Jacobi, the Jeweller, at Sixth avenue and Thirteenth street, and who was shot to death in July, 1911.

Taylor has denied complicity in that crime. He confessed some days ago that he was the leader of the auto bandit gang. To-day he appeared as chief witness against Joseph Forsytha of the gang that held up and nearly killed Byrd Nowman, a salounkeaper, of No. 48 Reads street, at the corner of One Hundred and Forty-fourth street and Bighth avenue on March 13 of this

LEADER TELLS HOW PLANNED ROBBERY.

"I met Jee Forsythe and told him to meet me at Columbus avenue and One Hundred and Fifth street; that all arrangements had been made for the rob-bery of Newman. I told him that when I presented a revolver to the head of Mr. Newman he was to grab the bar Newman would be carrying and run to an automobile which I would have waiting nearby. I said: "While you are doing this, John Quinn, another of our pais, will be with you, and if Newman makes an attempt to draw a revolver you strike him vith a blackjack." I told Forsythe that Newman kept a mison and lived on One Hundred

"Charles Leeber, our chauff struck up an acquaintance with a man Though they could not see, the men in the surging crowd knew what was held in the name of another man begoing on, and three were greeted and locked up on the first cry of:

attach it. Jordan told Locker he was attach it. Jordan told Locker he was attach it. attach it. Jordan told Loober he was willing for us to use the car for any

OFF THE POLICE. a nod, while Monier said, "I will not alcoholise myself."

Without the definite knowledge that and Twenty-fourth street and Amsterdamy was to be the day of their death, the three condemned men played eards on Sunday afternoon in jeil.

Suddenly, while the game was going on, and Sixty-third street and Jackson average that this is my last day. To-merrow I shall see Deibler, the amounties of the old number and hid it over the dold, "Four time has some," he said told, "Tour time has some," he said downy and put a fake number on the downway and put a fake number on the downway and put a fake number on the force."

Then this is the day without a temper him there next morning at morrow." In spite of the secrecy with which the To'clock. I did so, and then we drove prison authorities prepared for the ascuttons a day in advance of the time and Eighth avenue, where we found and that when he saw me take of my hat the job was about to be done Then Forsythe, Quinn and I waited for Newman. Quinn and Forsythe stood together and allowed Newman to pass them. When he was ten feet in advance of them I approached him with a revolver in my hand and presented it to his head and demanded the bag he carried. Simultaneously, Quinn struck him in the head with the lead pipe and Forsythe grabbed the to the ground. We all leaped into the we all got out except Lober, and we sent him back to the garage to have the car repainted so it would be dis-

The bag stolen from Newman con-tained only a pistol and some paper. Newman nearly died from his injuries

May Yet Get $60,000 From Tham WASHINGTON, April 21.-The Su preme Court to-day decided to review New York, which denied John B. Gle. son, a New York lawyer, the right to collect $60,000 from Harry K. Thas for legal services because Thaw was discharged in bankruptcy proceedings.

Hoods Sarsaparilla

The Spring Medicine. Get it to-day.

DOYLE

New se sale. 15 cests a copy. $1.50 a year

SOTH YEAR STEWART RUG ** CARPET CLEANSING FIRE PROOF STORAGE

8567 COLUMBUS Good on hot meats. Good on cold meats. Fine for flavoring

Founded in 1863

soups and gravies. Ald audited

Made by E. Pritchard, 8815pring St., N.Y. CHEATING AND REPAIRING.
A REINS CORRESTS AND SELECTIONS
LADY OF UTILITY SORREST SAFE, LADY OF UTILITY, SWOOD FORE, MONTH OF UTILITY, SWOOD FORE,

CARPET J. J. J. W. WILLIAMS CLEANING 353 West 54% St.

DIED.

Brooklyn.

DOTLE.—On Saturday, April 18, at his home. 250 Patchen ave., JOHN DOTLE, Jr., beloved husband of Mary Doyle (neo Murphy) and son of John Doyle so., it. his 57th yeas.

Funeral from his late residence en Wednesday, April 28, at 9.86 A. M. thence to the Church of the Holy Reservinterment Calvary Completey.

Policy of Competition

Special for Monday POUND BOX 19C

Special for Tuesday delicious blending of nut and 10c Suggestion for Tuesday POUND BOX 25C

Park Bow, Carlandt and 195th street stores own every evening until 11 o'clock 64 BARCLAY STREET
COL West Breedway
SO CORTLANDT ST.
Col. Church Street
Print Rev. & Hosses St.
M City Bull Park

SOE BROADWAY Cor. Palton St. 147 NASSAU STREST